

We were married on July 13, 1974. It was the second marriage for both of us so we both decided we would go to Niagara Falls, the honeymoon capital of the world.

There were two romantic things that happened the first was. I saw some Wedgwood China in one of the shops and my new husband was feeling pangs of guilt when he looked at the price tags. Well I don't know how he did it without me knowing, but he couldn't afford the China, setting, but he got me the most beautiful pinpoint which I still wear + everytime I do I remember the special time.

The second was he had a tattoo with his name + his former wife's. Well it really started to bother me on our honeymoon so he saw a tattoo parlor and now was my turn to feel guilty, because I didn't want him to endure the pain, but somehow they covered her name with mine and that made our honeymoon even more memorable.

We've been back to the Falls twice since then, but of course the first time is always special
