All my life I had Heard and seen on TV that Niaoara Falls was "the " place to go on your Honeymoon. I had planned that when I oot married I too would go to Niagara Falls on my romantic Honeymoon. Jim and I were married on August 24th 1984. We were unable to get away for our Honeymoon until August 31st - September 2nd. WE decided to go to the Canadian side of the Falls. on August 31st we left Michioan City Indiana and headed to Canada. We drove up thru Michioan to the Canadian Border into Winsor Canada. At the Canadian Border the Border Patrol decided to search our car, (because my husband was a police officer) and we had F.O.P. stickers on the car they wanted to make sure he wasnt bring any guns into Canada. This took about a oood half hour and Jim was very unset. By the time we arrived at Niaoara Falls it was very late. The drive up was about ten hours. We hadn,t made any reservations because we didn,t know when we could get away and I thought it was off season and there would be plenty of rooms. There must of be a convention noino on in town because we couldnt find a room. Finally we found a room someone had cancelled and it had two separate beds. It was very late and we were hunory so we decided to walk up the hill and try and find a place to eat. My husband had hoped for a nice steak dinner but the only place opened was a submarine sandwich place . So we eat our sandwichs and headed back to our room. My husband and I were so tired from the lono drive that we both got in our "own" beds and went to sleep. The next day we found alot of the attractions closed because it was off season. The Maid Of The Mist was still operating it was very cold out but we wanted to take a boat ride. The ride was very lovely. The boat ride was cold and wet but it was a sight to see. I had always wanted to see the Falls. That evening we had a better dinner and a better evening then the night before. The third day we had to head for home. We discovered that Canada has "Lawn Sales" Instead of Garage Sales. So we spent the drive home stoppino at lawn sales. Jim and I really enjoyed our Honeymoon at Niaoara Falls. The time went fast and the trip was not the classical Honeymoon I had dreamed of. But it was "Our" Honeymoon and We would do it all over again!

Sincerely
